976 Adair Ave
Resources for Affected Residents

1. Accommodation

BC Housing – Emergency Housing and Accommodations

Priority given to no insurance and low-income. An income means test will be administered. Check www.bchousing.org.
604-433-2218

Possible short term stay at a hotel/motel

Possible long term stay with renting – Please refer to Classifieds or Craigslist

The following Property Management Companies have advised BC Housing of vacancies in their buildings:

http://www.acdrealty.com/www.acdrealty.com

2. Food

Share Family and Community Services
Food Bank
2615 Clarke Road, Port Moody
604-931-2451

Share has emergency food hampers available for the non-food bank user. Please call first before arriving at Food Bank.

Salvation Army
Family Services Office
325 – 6th Street, New Westminster
604-521-2421

The Salvation Army will do a needs assessment. They have emergency food items available. Please call the above number to book an appointment.

976 Adair Ave
Resources for Affected Residents

3. Household Items

Share Family and Community Services
Thrift Store
2402 St. John's Street, Port Moody
604-931-5510

Share does not have furniture. What they can provide is based upon what is available. Please call the above number before arriving at the Thrift Store. Proof of address will be required as part of assessment.

Salvation Army
Family Services Office
325 – 6th Street, New Westminster
604-521-2421

The Salvation Army will do a needs assessment. They do have furniture, other household items, and toys available. Their warehouse will gather everything together and deliver to your home. Please call the above number to book an appointment.

4. Emotional Support

RCMP Victim Services
2986 Guildford Way, Coquitlam
604-945-1585

Please call Victim Services if you are needing additional emotional support. They will have been present at the fire, and have staff and volunteers available to speak with you.

Share Family and Community Services
Counselling Services
2615 Clarke Street, Port Moody
604-936-3900

976 Adair Ave
Resources for Affected Residents

5. Translation and Interpretation, Emotional Support

S.U.C.C.E.S.S.
Unit 2508 Henderson Place, Coquitlam
604-468-6000

Please call SUCCESS if you need help with translation and interpretation and/or emotional support spoken in the following languages: Mandarin/Cantonese, Korean, and Farsi. Please call the above number to book an appointment with a Settlement Worker.

6. Financial Options

Financial Assistance if eligible:

Ministry of Housing and Social Development
604-664-0135 Press # 7 for a Ministry Assistant
Locations:

- #202 – 1015 Columbia Street, New Westminster
- Unit B100 – 2099 Lougheed Highway, Port Coquitlam

Banking institutions:

Please contact your bank to discuss possible financial arrangements