

CITY OF COQUITLAM

BYLAW NO. 2851, 1994

A bylaw to regulate animals and birds and to establish and operate a pound within the City of Coquitlam

WHEREAS:

- A. pursuant to the provisions of subsection 933(1) of the Municipal Act, R.S.B.C. 1979, C. 290, as amended (the "Municipal Act"), Council for the City of Coquitlam ("Council") has authority to regulate or prohibit kennels or other places for the keeping, training, care, breeding, treatment, hospitalization or boarding and the keeping of certain classes of animals;
- B. pursuant to the provisions of subsection 933(2) of the Municipal Act, Council may, by bylaw,
 - (a) provide for the seizure, impounding and detention of certain classes of animals unlawfully at large,
 - (b) establish, maintain and operate facilities as pounds in the municipality,
 - (c) regulate and fix the fines and fees, including damages for trespass on private property, to be levied and collected by pound keepers,
 - (d) provide for the sale or destruction of animals and birds impounded where prescribed fees and other charges are not paid within a reasonable time;
- C. pursuant to the provisions of section 932 of the Municipal Act, Council may, by bylaw,
 - (a) regulate the sale of animals and the driving of animals through the municipality,
 - (b) prohibit cruelty to animals and provide for the destruction of animals suffering from incurable diseases, and
 - (c) require that an owner, possessor or harbourer of any class of dog keep it effectively muzzled while at large or on a highway or public space, or on a leash or under control of a competent person while on a highway or public place as directed by the bylaw;
- D. pursuant to the provisions of section 524 of the Municipal Act, Council may, by bylaw, fix, impose and provide for the collection of licence fees from any person who owns, possesses or harbours a dog;
- E. Council deems it necessary and desirable that it exercise the authority given to it pursuant to sections 524, 932 and 933 of the Municipal Act to the extent set forth in the following bylaw;

NOW, THEREFORE, COUNCIL for the City of Coquitlam, in open meeting assembled, HEREBY ENACTS AS FOLLOWS:

1. REPEAL OF EXISTING BYLAWS

4. ESTABLISHMENT OF A POUND

The premises located at 1414 Pipeline Road, Coquitlam, British Columbia, legally known and described as Lot 1 of Legal Subdivisions 5 and 12, Section 13, Township 39, New Westminster District, Plan 24571 (S. & E. Plan 57309) and Lot 9 of Legal Subdivisions 5 and 12, Section 13, Township 39, New Westminster District, Plan 57309, are hereby established as the Municipality's Pound and will be operated and maintained for the keeping of such domestic animals as the Poundkeeper may impound or otherwise come into possession of pursuant to this Bylaw. Council may, by resolution designate such other or alternate premises, either within the Municipality or, with the permission of the Council of another municipality, within such other municipality, to be the Municipality's Pound pursuant to this section and the authority granted by section 933(2)(b) of the Municipal Act.

5. APPOINTMENT OF A POUNDKEEPER

- 5.1. Council may, at any time and from time to time, by resolution, appoint a Poundkeeper to operate and maintain the Pound for and on behalf of the Municipality and may enter into an agreement with the Poundkeeper for the provision of such services provided that such agreement is otherwise in compliance with the Municipal Act.
- 5.2. Council may, at any time and from time to time, by resolution, lease the Pound to the Poundkeeper pursuant to any agreement entered into by the Municipality and the Poundkeeper in accordance with section 5.1 and provided that such lease is otherwise in compliance with the Municipal Act.

6. POWERS AND DUTIES OF A POUNDKEEPER

- 6.1. The Poundkeeper has the following powers under this Bylaw:
 - (a) to employ such employees and agents as the Poundkeeper deems necessary to enable it to carry out its powers and duties pursuant to this Bylaw and such employees and agents are hereby authorized to carry out any and all of the powers and duties of the Poundkeeper as the Poundkeeper may delegate to them;
 - (b) to impound any domestic animal found running at large in the Municipality or to receive any other domestic animal impounded in accordance with this Bylaw by any other duly authorized person;
 - (c) to retain any domestic animal impounded pursuant to section 6.2(b) for a period of not less than 48 hours unless the domestic animal is sooner reclaimed by the Owner or his agent in accordance with the provisions of this Bylaw;
 - (d) with or without complaint of a violation of this Bylaw, to enter on and inspect, at all reasonable times during any day of the week, private property within the Municipality, in order to ascertain whether this Bylaw is being complied with and, where, as a result of such entry and inspection, the Poundkeeper identifies any domestic animal being kept contrary to this Bylaw, to impound such domestic animal or exercise any other authority granted to the Poundkeeper by this Bylaw;
 - (e) within the limits of the manpower and resources available to the Poundkeeper, to investigate any complaint received alleging a violation of this Bylaw, provided that if such complaint alleges that a vicious dog is running at large, the Poundkeeper will immediately respond to such complaint, or, if unable to respond, immediately notify the Municipality's police force of the situation in order to permit the police force to respond as necessary;

- (f) where the Poundkeeper is satisfied that a dog is a vicious dog or that a domestic animal is diseased and such disease may pose a threat to other domestic animals or to humans, the Poundkeeper may, by written notice, direct the Owner of such vicious dog or domestic animal to keep the same confined to the Owner's property or property within the control of the Owner and, in the case of non-compliance with the Poundkeeper's directive, the Poundkeeper may impound the vicious dog or diseased domestic animal pursuant to this section and will, within 96 hours of such impoundment, apply to a judge of the Provincial Court of British Columbia for an order directing that the vicious dog or diseased domestic animal be destroyed;
- (g) where an application to the Provincial Court of British Columbia is made pursuant to paragraph (f) of this section, the Poundkeeper will provide the Owner of the vicious dog or domestic animal with not less than 24 hours written notice of the application date and time in order that the Owner may have the opportunity to appear at and speak to the application for an order for destruction;
- (h) a notice required pursuant to paragraph (g) of this section will be deemed to have been received by the Owner if provided in accordance with the following procedures,
 - (i) if the name and address of the Owner is known to or reasonably ascertainable by the Poundkeeper, by delivery of the notice by courier or registered mail to the Owner at that address, or
 - (ii) where the name and address is not known to the Poundkeeper, by leaving a copy of the notice with any adult person at the address from which the vicious dog or domestic animal was seized and impounded or, where an adult is not present at that address, by affixing a copy of the notice to any entry door of the premises at such address, and by publishing a copy of the notice in a newspaper circulating within the Municipality;
- (i) subject to paragraph (f) of this section, the Poundkeeper may, where an impounded domestic animal remains unclaimed by its Owner for a period of 48 hours or more, either destroy the domestic animal or, provided the domestic animal is not a vicious dog or diseased, offer the domestic animal for sale to the general public, by way of auction or otherwise;
- (j) to issue tickets in lieu of any impoundment authorized by this Bylaw or for any violation of any other provision of this Bylaw in the amounts prescribed in Schedule "A";
- (k) to operate and maintain an incinerator adjacent to the Pound facilities or elsewhere as permitted by resolution of Council, such incinerator to be used for purposes of disposing of pathological waste generated by the Pound or, upon payment of the fees prescribed in Schedule "A" to this Bylaw, by commercial businesses or Owners;

- (l) enforce any and all provisions of this Bylaw, including without limitation, the issuance of dog licences pursuant to section 8.4 and of tickets pursuant to paragraph (j) of this section and the assessment, levy and collection of all fees, fines, charges and other amounts authorized pursuant to this Bylaw.

6.2. The Poundkeeper is required under this Bylaw to:

- (a) ensure that all domestic animals retained in the Pound receive humane treatment, including, without limitation,
 - (i) adequate food and water,
 - (ii) where necessary to protect the other domestic animals in the Pound, medication or veterinary treatment, provided that the requirement for veterinary attention does not extend to the need to provide major surgical or life-saving procedures,
 - (iii) if the domestic animal is a milk cow, that the cow is milked twice a day in accordance with good dairy practice, provided that any milk obtained may be disposed of in the Poundkeeper's sole discretion without accountability to the Owner of the cow;
- (b) maintain and make available upon request of the Municipality, adequate records of all domestic animals impounded by the Poundkeeper and all domestic animals retained in the Pound, which records will include the following information, as applicable,
 - (i) the date, hour, and location of the impoundment,
 - (ii) a general description of the domestic animal, including any identifying marks or tattoos and any name tag or dog licence,
 - (iii) where available, the name and address of the Owner,
 - (iv) any fees, fines or other charges incurred in connection with the impoundment and detention of the domestic animal,
 - (v) the method of disposition of the domestic animal, i.e. reclaimed by Owner, destroyed or sold by auction or other means;
- (c) maintain the following minimum hours of operation of the Pound
 - (i) 9:00 a.m. to 6:00 p.m. Monday to Friday, and
 - (ii) 9:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m. Saturday provided that the Pound may be closed on Sundays and any statutory holiday;

- (d) remit all fees, fines, charges or other monies collected pursuant to this Bylaw to the Municipality or in accordance with any agreement entered into pursuant to section 5.2 of this Bylaw.

- 6.3. If the Poundkeeper should fail to perform any of the duties or obligations required of him pursuant to this Bylaw or should perform the same in a negligent or fraudulent manner, Council may, by resolution, forthwith remove the Poundkeeper and appoint a successor to the position of Poundkeeper.
- 6.4. Any person who interferes with or attempts to interfere with the Poundkeeper in the performance of his duties and powers pursuant to this Bylaw commits an offence and, upon summary conviction therefor, is subject to the fines and penalties prescribed in Schedule "A".
- 6.5. The powers of the Poundkeeper to impound domestic animals and to issue tickets in lieu of impoundment or for other violations of this Bylaw may be enforced by any member of the R.C.M.P. or such other police force as is providing policing services to the Municipality at any time and from time to time.

7. CONTROL OF DOMESTIC ANIMALS

- 7.1. Every Owner is responsible for ensuring that his or her domestic animal is not, at any time, running at large within the Municipality, whether or not the Owner has entrusted the care and custody of the domestic animal to any other person and, with respect to any dog, every Owner is responsible for ensuring that the dog is secured by a collar and leash suitable to the dog's size and strength and that such leash is under the control of the Owner or his or her agent.
- 7.2. Every Owner of a female dog in heat will confine the dog within the Owner's premises, within premises under the Owner's possession and control or within a kennel contained within the Owner's property provided that such property is fenced or secured so as to prevent any dog from gaining access to the kennel.
- 7.3. Every Owner of a whelping female dog will, where the dog has, at any time during the whelping period or any previous whelping period, shown any of the traits described in section 3(p)(i), keep the dog in accordance with the requirements of section 7.2.
- 7.4. No Owner of a diseased domestic animal will, where the disease poses a threat to the health or safety of other domestic animals or humans, permit the animal to leave the property or premises of the Owner other than for purposes of Veterinarian visits, in which case the domestic animal will be transported in such a manner as to ensure that it does not come into contact with other domestic animals or humans, and will keep the domestic animal in accordance with the provisions of section 7.2.

- 7.5. If any dog, while lawfully or unlawfully in a public place or on private property other than property owned by the Owner of such dog and without the consent or knowledge of the owner of such private property, defecates, the Owner of the dog is responsible for ensuring that the feces are fully removed from the public place or private property and disposed of in a sanitary manner, provided that this section does not apply where the dog is a special needs dog that is, at the relevant time, in the care and control of a person whose disability renders that person incapable of removing and disposing of the feces.
- 7.6. Every Owner of a vicious dog is responsible for ensuring that:
- (a) the dog is not permitted in any public place unless, in addition to the requirements of section 7.1, the dog is muzzled in such a manner as to prevent it from being able to bite another domestic animal or human; and
 - (b) while the dog is on premises or property owned by or within the possession and control of the Owner, it is contained within the premises on such property or securely confined in a kennel located on the property provided that the property is fenced or secured in such a manner that no other domestic animals or children can access the kennel.
- 7.7. Every Owner of a dog that is trained as or used primarily for the purposes of a guard dog, whether of residential, commercial or industrial premises or property, will ensure that:
- (a) either
 - (i) the dog is confined within the premises and such premises are reasonably secure against unauthorized entry,
 - (ii) the property is completely fenced by means of a 1.8 metre fence constructed in accordance with the Municipality's bylaws and any gates in such fence are reasonably secured against unauthorized entry, or
 - (iii) the dog is securely confined in an area within the property that is adequate to ensure that the dog cannot escape;
 - (b) warning signs advising of the dog's presence on the premises or property, with lettering clearly visible from the lesser of the curb line of the property and 50 feet from the premises, are posted at each driveway or entranceway to the property and at all exterior doors of the premises; and
 - (c) before bringing the dog onto the property, the Poundkeeper and the Municipality's fire and police departments have been notified in writing of the address of the property which the dog will be guarding, the approximate hours during which the dog will be performing guard duties, the breed, age, sex and dog licence number of the dog and the full names, addresses and telephone numbers of the Owner and any other individual who will be responsible for the dog while it is on guard duty.

Any changes to the information required to be provided pursuant to this section must be communicated in writing at least 24 hours before the change occurs.

- 7.8. No person occupying property within the Municipality that falls within any of the residential zoning categories in the Municipality's then applicable zoning bylaw, other than where such property meets the agricultural use tests of such bylaw, will permit more than 3 domestic animals to normally reside on such property, provided that nothing in this section extends or authorizes any keeping of domestic animals that is otherwise prohibited by any law, regulation or bylaw applicable within the Municipality.
- 7.9. Every person having the care or control of a domestic animal, other than a special needs dog, in a public place will obey all posted signs that apply to such domestic animal, including, without limitation, all signs restricting or prohibiting entry by dogs.
- 7.10. No Owner will permit a domestic animal to ride in a vehicle in such a manner that the animal could be ejected from the vehicle while the vehicle is in motion or if the vehicle should come to an abrupt stop, and, without limiting the foregoing, no Owner will permit a domestic animal to ride in the back of pick-up or similar vehicle without adequately securing the domestic animal to ensure that ejection does not occur in the circumstances described above.
- 7.11. Every Owner of a domestic animal that has been impounded pursuant to this Bylaw may reclaim the domestic animal by:
 - (a) attending or causing his or her authorized agent to attend at the Pound with satisfactory proof of ownership of the domestic animal; and
 - (b) paying in full any and all impounding charges, custodial charges for the care and maintenance of the domestic animal and any other charges levied pursuant to this Bylaw.

8. DOG LICENCING

- 8.1. Every Owner of a dog is responsible for ensuring that his or her dog is licensed in accordance with this Bylaw.
- 8.2. Every Owner of a dog must, where the dog is ordinarily kept within the Municipality, annually, on or before March 1 or such later date as the day on which the dog is actually or apparently 4 months of age, apply to the Municipality or the Pound to register and licence the dog.
- 8.3. Every application to register and licence a dog within the Municipality must be made on the Municipality's prescribed form and accompanied by the necessary licence fee as set out in Schedule "A".

- 8.4. The Poundkeeper or the Municipality will, upon receipt of a completed application form and the prescribed fee, issue to the Owner a receipt for the fee and a metal or plastic tag on which will be impressed or stamped a number which corresponds to the licence application number and the year of issuance of the licence. Every licence issued pursuant to this Part expires on December 31 of the year of issuance.
- 8.5. Every Owner will ensure that, at all times that the dog is not within the Owner's property or premises, the dog wears a collar to which is attached the tag referred to in section 8.4 and no person may remove a collar containing such tag from a dog that is then in a public place.
- 8.6. If the tag referred to in section 8.4 is lost or defaced so as to render the licence number illegible, the Owner may, upon written application and the payment of the fee prescribed in Schedule "A", apply to the Poundkeeper or the Municipality for a new tag. The Poundkeeper or the Municipality may request evidence of loss or defacement before issuing a new tag as provided in this section.
- 8.7. All licences issued pursuant to this Part are non-transferable and no portion of the fees paid pursuant to this Part is refundable for any reason whatsoever.

9. KENNEL AND ENCLOSURE REQUIREMENTS

- 9.1. Where any provision in this Bylaw requires that a domestic animal be kept in a secure kennel, the kennel must be at least 1.83 metres in height, have a concrete, asphalt or wooden floor and sides and roof constructed with building materials that are sufficiently sturdy to contain the domestic animal in a humane and safe manner, and have a secure fastening which will prevent the escape of the domestic animal or the opening of the kennel by children.
- 9.2. Where any provision in this Bylaw requires that a domestic animal be controlled within the property, such control will be achieved by means of a 1.8 metre fence constructed in accordance with the Municipality's bylaw providing for fence construction specifications.
- 9.3. Any person operating for profit a kennel facility within the Municipality must obtain a kennel licence from the Pound or the Municipality. Any person wishing to obtain a kennel licence must apply in writing on the prescribed form and submit the fee prescribed in Schedule "A". Upon approval of such licence, the Municipality or Pound will issue to the applicant a licence which must be prominently displayed on the premises where the kennel facility is located.

10. OFFENCES AND PENALTIES

- 10.1. Any person who contravenes, violates or fails to observe any provision of this Bylaw or who suffers, permits, aids or abets the contravention or violation of or failure to perform any provision of this Bylaw, commits an offence and, upon summary conviction therefor, is liable to a fine to the maximum amount specified from time to time in the Offence Act, R.S.B.C. 1979, c. 305".
