- Wage gaps and the importance of data analysis in that regard
- The recent Black Lives Matter movement and issues relative to racialized groups in Canada
- The role of the Committee to act in an advisory capacity to Council and give critical and valuable advice

6. Coquitlam Celebrates Canada Day Virtually 2020

The Social Planner recapped plans for the City's 2020 virtual Canada Day celebrations, and the Committee considered whether it wished to participate in Canada Day festivities and/or provide an online activity to the public.

In the interests of time, the Chair suggested that the Committee could strike a Sub-committee to consider potential Canada Day activities. The following Committee members volunteered to participate in a Sub-committee: Simin Ahmadian, Pamela Garcia, Andrea Kwasnicki, Priti Shah, and Zahra Zaker. The Chair undertook to contact the Sub-committee via email to further brainstorm ideas.

7. 10th Anniversary of Welcome to Coquitlam Event – Early Planning Considerations

The Manager Community Planning spoke to the Committee's past involvement in the Welcome to Coquitlam event and invited the Committee to provide input regarding the suggestion that the 10th Anniversary of the Welcome to Coquitlam event could be moved to the spring of 2021.

Minutes - Multiculturalism Advisory Committee Meeting
Wednesday, June 17, 2020

Discussion ensued and the Committee agreed that it would be best to postpone the event to the spring of 2021 due to considerations involving the attendance of international students, inclement fall weather, and the desire that participants, especially those with English as a second language, be able to attend the event in person.
