HAVE YOUR SAY

Land-Use Changes Proposed for Partington Creek

As Coquitlam moves forward with plans around the future Burke Mountain Village, the public is invited to learn more and ask questions about proposed land-use changes.

The City of Coquitlam's City Lands and Real Estate Division has proposed to amend the Citywide Official Community Plan, as well as to rezone and subdivide a portion of the lands near the future Burke Mountain Village. This application includes expanded public parks as well as introducing new housing types to the mountain, creating a broader range of housing options for families, young couples, seniors and empty nesters.

The proposal also increases protected environmental areas on the mountain, establishing a larger Streamside Protection and Enhancement Area and Headwater Zone around Baycrest Creek.

The City is hosting both virtual and in-person information sessions where the public can learn more about the proposed changes, ask questions and provide feedback.

Virtual Information Session

Friday, March 18 | 12 – 1:30 p.m.
Session will be held via Zoom. Registration is required at burkevillage.ca/community-development.

In-person Information Session

LOOKING OUT FOR THE ENVIRONMENT

New Regional Recycling and Waste Centre Open

Metro Vancouver's new United Boulevard Recycling and Waste Centre is now open at 995 United Boulevard. This new facility replaces the Coquitlam Recycling and Waste Centre which was located one kilometre to the east of the new site. Coquitlam residents wanting to up their recycling game can now use the facility's expansive new full-service depot with more free recycling options as well as drop off for green waste and garbage. Visit coquitlam.ca/recycling for information on recycling options in Coquitlam.

FITNESS AND FUN

Spring Wreath Workshop

Create a floral spring wreath using a mixture of felt scenery shapes, yarn, ribbons and intricate details. The design is customizable to the crafter's imagination. The workshop will be held Saturday, March 26, from 1 – 2:30 p.m. at Glen Pine. All supplies are included — no previous arts and crafts experience needed! Registration required, open to adults 19+.
