LOOKING OUT FOR THE ENVIRONMENT

Boulevard Maintenance Utility Tips

As yard work projects get underway, residents who live next to City boulevards are reminded to maintain this public space.

- Please keep plants and soil clear of utility covers so they are accessible to City work crews.
 - Vegetation must be kept at least 1 metre away from any utility pole, traffic signal, street light, fire hydrant, City sign or other structure so it is visible and accessible from the street and sidewalk.
 - Do not dig down more than 15 cm to avoid utilities.
 - Call your local utility company for advice about vegetation growing around power, cable, telephone or any other utility wires.
 - Call before you dig! Call BC One Call 800-474-6886 or visit the BC1C website: <https://www.bc1c.ca/>
- Visit coquitlam.ca/boulevard for details and more information.

NEIGHBOURHOOD NEWS

There and Back Again: A Salmon's Tale

Check out the latest Archives online exhibit that uses the salmon-themed public art found throughout Coquitlam as a jumping-off point to reflect on this area's long-standing connection with salmon. A gift of meticulous records in 2020 to the Archives from the Hoy-Scott Watershed Society provides insights into the rich role the community has played in restoring the Hoy-Scott watersheds. TRAFFIC HOT SPOTS

Improvements to Gatensbury Street

Major safety and travel improvements started June 13 on Gatensbury Street from the Port Moody border to Como Lake Park (Regan Avenue). This project will bring new curbs and gutters, sidewalks, a multi-use pathway, crosswalks, lighting, landscaping and other upgrades improving accessibility and safety for road users, pedestrians and cyclists. The project will also improve access to Como Lake Park. Traffic flow and street parking will be affected and drivers should use an alternate route to avoid delays. Most of the construction work will be scheduled for Monday to Friday between 7 a.m. and 7 p.m., although some work may take place on Saturdays. Information can be found at coquitlam.ca/gatensbury.

Enjoy a Performance on the Patio

Enjoy a fun summer evening in the Rose Garden with the dazzling Beauty Shop Dolls on Wednesday, July 6 from 7 – 8:30 p.m. at Dogwood Pavilion (1655 Winslow Ave.). Fresh-faced and stylishly retro-chic, this vintage vocal trio have been entertaining audiences since 2014. Performing classics from the roaring 1920s Great Gatsby era, the swinging 1940s dance halls, and boppin' 1950s radio hits, these dolls know how to woo a crowd into an old fashioned love affair. Lemonade, iced tea and fruit tarts will be served.

To register, visit coquitlam.ca/registration and click Register for Programs. In the registration system, search the Course ID# 92308 as the keyword to view the program. You may also register by calling 604-927-4386 or by visiting the front desk at any recreation facility.
