Sport Facility Hosting Guide
One of British Columbia’s fastest growing communities, Coquitlam is a progressive city of 129,000, with an unparalleled combination of recreational and sports facilities, from gymnasiums to field/turf and aquatics facilities, to stadiums and a state-of-the-art, multi-purpose indoor complexes.

Playing for fun, competing hard or cheering for your favourite team – we do it all with heart.
Mad About Sports

From Saturday street hockey to summer Little League, ice dancing to water polo and seniors’ softball, Coquitlam invites everyone to come out and play. We are a member of the Canadian Sports Tourism Alliance and welcome athletes for tournaments and special events. Everyone loves our natural training grounds – the fields, the ice, the greens, ball diamonds, trails, our stadium and pools.

Located at the crossroads of Metro Vancouver, Pacific Rim and the United States, Coquitlam’s stunning natural setting boasts extensive parks and nature areas totalling 2,200 acres.

We are easily accessible to all Lower Mainland cities with close proximity to Vancouver and Abbotsford International Airports. Expansion of the Evergreen Line will connect Coquitlam directly to Vancouver via rapid transit.
Contact us today for support and knowledge that is second to none.

We are an experienced host city and can help you with all the insider details including permits, road and traffic operations and more.

There is so much to do!

When you enter one of Coquitlam’s premiere multi-purpose facilities, you can be confident that it is a state-of-the-art complex.

At Town Centre Park and Poirier Sport & Leisure Complex, athletes practice, train and compete with other athletes of equal skill level.
Town Centre Park

1299 Pinetree Way

Town Centre Park features a state-of-the-art track and field, Percy Perry stadium and sports field complex. Attracting more than 50,000 visitors every year, the park hosts a number of annual community events and festivals throughout its 100 acres.

From organized sports to casual play, athletes and visitors can enjoy Lafarge Lake and its natural surroundings. The immediate site is wired for lighting and sound. Picnic areas, walking trail, and parking are close by.

Percy Perry Stadium
Track & Field

This outdoor stadium located at Town Centre Park has a fixed capacity of 1,600 persons with accessible viewing areas to add significant portable seating. The venue lends itself well to athlete marshalling and has been used for large scale events such as the annual BC Highland Games and 2010 World Police and Fire Games, with an average attendance in the thousands.

Mundy Park and Riverview Forest Trail

The Mundy Park Community Path is a 5.5 km asphalt paved multi-use trail suitable for a variety of recreational pursuits.

Town Centre Park Trail

All trails are hard surface/asphalt trails with the exception of a nature trail at the south end of Lafarge Lake providing access to a fishing pier. Trails are generally flat, with a slight elevation gain and include:

Como Lake Park Trail: 1 km
Hoy Creek Trail: 2.8 km
Portions of the trail require “on-street” use of sidewalks and crosswalks to complete overall route
Lafarge Lake Loop: 1.2 km
Flat, natural surface suitable for walking and jogging
Northwest Loop: 1.2 km
Perimeter Trail: 2.7 km
Stadium Loop: 1.2 km

Coquitlam Crunch Trail

2 km trail located under a BC Hydro Right of Way in the Eagle Ridge and Eagle Mountain areas
Challenging elevation gain of 250 metres
Viewpoint and rest area at the midway point
Total distance: 2,200 metres (7,200 feet)
Total elevation gain: 244 metres (800 feet)
