Lauren Hewson, Chief Election Officer
City of Coquitlam Election Office
3000 Guildford Way
Coquitlam, BC V3B 7N2

Dear Chief Election Officer,

The Canadian Labour Congress (CLC) registered as a campaign organizer for the 2011 local election in your jurisdiction. Attached is the required disclosure on our province-wide campaign for your jurisdiction.

The CLC is a central labour organization that has historically participated in local elections, working with our affiliated labour councils, our affiliate trade unions, and our provincial BC Federation of Labour (Federation). Our labour councils take the lead by working with local candidates and recommending which of them, if any, should receive an endorsement. The affiliated unions and the Federation then work with us to distribute those endorsements to our members for their information.

We paid expenses directly for some labour councils. In addition, many of our affiliates and other labour councils have donated the value of their activities as an in-kind donation to the CLC campaign. Mailings and distributions of the labour council endorsements have occurred throughout areas that invariably encompass many jurisdictions.

We have produced a single report and attached a list of all candidates in the province for whom we campaigned as a campaign organizer. All declarations have been notarized and we believe meet the requirements of the Local Government Act and are consistent with the Campaign Organizer Guide.

Yours truly,

Amber Hockin
Regional Director
Canadian Labour Congress, Pacific Region
