

Coquitlam Fire / Rescue Interface Fire Prevention Info Sessions - July 2019

FIRESMART LANDSCAPING

Recommended

NATIVE

Trees

- Western flowering dogwood
- Black hawthorn
- Aspen, cottonwood
- Red alder
- Birch

Shrubs

- Flowering currant
- Rose
- Willow
- Birch-leaf spirea
- Western spirea
- Snowberry
- American cranberry
- Vine maple
- Oceanspray
- Mockorange
- Rocky Mountain Maple

ORNAMENTAL

Trees

- European beach
- Green ash
- White ash
- Thornless honeylocust
- Kentucky coffee tree
- Walnut
- American sweetgum
- Pin oak
- Red oak
- Purple robe locust
- Amur maple
- Horsechestnut

Shrubs

- Portugese laurel
- Strawberry tree
- Glossy abelie
- Fraser photinia
- Privit
- Boxwood
- Firethorn
- Japanese pieris
- Sumac
- Western azalea
- Lilac
- California lilac
- Cranberry cotoneaster
- Dwarf burning bush
- Russian sage

Not Recommended

NATIVE & ORNAMENTAL

Trees

- Pine
- Spruce
- Fir
- Western red cedar
- Douglas fir
- Hemlock
- Western yew
- Yellow cedar (cypress)

Shrubs & Hedges

- Juniper
- Arborvitae
- English yew

This information is not an official statement of City of Coquitlam or Coquitlam Fire / Rescue bylaws, policies, procedures, practices or services and you should not consider it as such. It is intended only to give you general information. While the City uses reasonable efforts to list only current, accurate and complete information, Coquitlam Fire / Rescue does not guarantee this to you.