It is truly a treat to visit the Festival of Lights at VanDusen Gardens during Christmas when over a million coloured lights decorate the trees and walkways there. The garden crew design and install tasteful decorations with volunteer help transforming the site into a winter wonderland. There's a carousel, Santa and a candlelit grotto, and best of all is the dancing light show round the lake where lights change in time to the music. Do take your camera on this bus trip and enjoy it all!
