

PART 4 PROCEDURES

401 Development Permits

- (1) An owner of land that is designated as a development permit area in an Official Community Plan must obtain and hold a development permit prior to:
 - (a) constructing, adding to, or altering a building or structure except:
 - (i) when alterations or repairs are required to the exterior of the building as a result of water damage
 - (ii) when alteration or repairs are required to the exterior of the building as a result of fire damage resulting in less than 75% of the building's value above its foundations, as determined by the Building Inspector;
 - (iii) adding to or altering an existing building or other structure, with a total value of less than $150,000, and that is compatible with the Development Permit Guidelines in the Official Community Plan;
 - (iv) a building or structure for a one-family residential use; and
 - (v) a temporary building.
 - (b) altering a building or structure on a designated provincial or municipal heritage site;
 - (c) altering land within an area designated for protection of the natural environment or protection of development from hazardous conditions;
 - (d) altering land within an area designated for revitalization of an area in which a commercial use is permitted, or a building or structure on that land.

402 Temporary Use Permits

(1) Designated Areas

All properties outside of the Agricultural Land Reserve in the City are designated a Temporary Use Permit Area.

(2) Conditions

Temporary Use Permits will be subject to conditions regarding the use of the land and a termination date of the permit.

- (a) In considering the issuance of a Temporary Use Permit, Council will use conditions it deems reasonable which may include:
 - (i) that the temporary use will operate at an intensity of use suitable to the surrounding area;
 - (ii) that the temporary use will be compatible with regard to use, design and operation with other surrounding land uses;

- (iii) that the temporary use will operate on a temporary basis only and includes, plans, or a letter of undertaking, to terminate the use prior to the expiry date of the permit;
- (iv) a financial security to ensure the temporary use is removed and the site appropriately restored.
